DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. The terminal disclaimer filed 10/04/04 has been approved.
2. Applicant's arguments filed 10/04/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The 102 and 103 rejections in the last Office action follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 1 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Feola.

The Applicant is referred to the description of Feola in the first Office action.

The Applicant has argued that a player's Ante and bonus wagers in Feola can lose before the hands has been played out, while a player's Primary and bonus wagers in the claimed invention cannot lose before the hands has been played out. The Examiner takes the position that this step is not clearly recited in the claims. The claims only recite the steps of "settling each Player's Primary Bet wager against the Banker; determining whether each Player's Bonus Bet wager wins or loses, if any; and settling each Player's Bonus Bet wager against the Banker". These steps are broad, and there is no recitation that all the Primary and Bonus wagers remain placed until each player and Banker have been dealt their seven-card hand.

Art Unit: 3711

The Applicant has also argued that in Feola's game there are three rounds of betting. Also in Feola's game each player can be dealt at least one initial card for the first round of betting, total of five cards for the second round of betting, and a total of seven cards for the third round of betting. While in the present invention, there is only one round of betting, and the dealer and each player are always dealt seven cards. The Examiner takes the position that the "only one round of betting" is not clearly recited in the claims of the present invention. The claims of the present invention only broadly recite "dealing cards, seven cards dealt either at one time or proportionally, into enough dealt hands of seven cards to provide a dealt hand for each Player and for the Banker". There is no recitation of "providing only one round of betting wherein each player placing a Primary Bet wager, and each player placing an optional Bonus Bet wager", "after all Primary Bets and Bonus Bets have been placed, dealing a hand of seven cards to each player and to the banker, wherein each player's Primary Bet and Bonus Bet remain placed, and permitting no additional Bets".

The Applicant has also argued that in Feola a winning payout is determined by comparing the player's best five cards with the dealer's best five cards, while in the present invention, the player qualifies for receiving a winning payout of the Primary wager, which is not determined by comparing the player's best five cards with the dealer's best five cards. The Examiner takes the position that there is nothing in the claims of the present invention clearly reciting this. The claims of the present invention only recite "settling each Player's Primary Bet wager against the Banker". This recitation is broad.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
6. Claims 2-14, 16 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Feola.

The Applicant is referred to the first Office action.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
